I wholeheartedly support the City of Mandurah's proposal to name bushland Reserve 49425 after environmental pioneer Shirley Joiner.

You will already know about:

- The hard work that Shirley put into the community over many years;
- Her dedication to help preserve the City's most valuable assets; and,
- Her countless achievements.

But Shirley was more than this. As well as her passion for the environment, she was an inspiring educator and role model for my generation, and I was very proud to work alongside her.

The Shirley Joiner Reserve is therefore a fitting tribute, will extend her legacy, and will hopefully inspire the next generation.
